

INSTITUTE OF LATIN AMERICAN STUDIES

SCHOOL OF
ADVANCED STUDY
UNIVERSITY
OF LONDON

Anglo-Bolivian Society

Revolutions in Bolivia

A conference organised by the Anglo-Bolivian Society and the Institute of Latin American Studies, University of London

Friday 16 March 2018

Room G35 (Bloomsbury Room)

Ground Floor, Senate House, Malet Street, London WC1E 7HU

9:30 – Welcome and Registration

10:00 – 11:30 Panel 1: Revolutionary Nationalism, Change and Continuity

Dr. John Crabtree - 'Essays in 'Populism?': the governments of the MNR and the MAS compared' - (Oxford University)

Manuel Bueno del Carpio BA Open - Continuity and differences between the 1952 revolution and the Evo Morales government - (Engineer and Bolivian trade union activist)

Dr. Winston Moore - Revolution to Pachachuti: vision of "Filippo" Filemón Escóbar – (Anglo-Bolivian Society)

11:30-11:45 Coffee

11:45- 13:15 Panel 2: Autonomies, Plurinational Projects, Constitutionality

Jonathan Alderman - Whose autonomy is it anyway? Class, Ethnicity and the Legacy of the Bolivian Revolution in the Plurinational State – (University of St Andrews)

Britta Katharina Matthes - Whose autonomy and autonomy from what/whom? Insights into nationalist revolution and pluri-national refoundation through demands for autonomy and their translation into state matter – (University of Bath)

Pamela Vargas Gorena - In the name of a Revolution: Re-election in Bolivia – (Lecturer in Law and public policy consultant- Bolivia)

13:15- 14:00 Lunch (included)

14:00- 16:00 Panel 3: Identities

Dr. Into A. Goudsmit - Aspiring to the Anti-Nation: From National to Plurinational Revolution - (Goldsmiths College/Institute of Latin American Studies, London)

Amaru Villanueva Rance - "Clases a medias" – the changing contours of Bolivian middle classes - (University of Essex)

Dr. Radosław Powęska - New Bolivia: state of many nations or indianised nation-state? – (University of Warsaw, Poland)

Dr. Soledad Stoessel - The "steering wheel class" during the process of political change in Bolivia – (National University of La Plata, Argentina)

16:00-16:15 Coffee

16:15 - 17:45 Panel 4: Social Movements, Media and Control

Anna Krausova - Strategic claims and frames: Explaining continuity and change for Bolivia's indigenous movement(s) – (Visiting Fellow, Institute of Latin American Studies, London)

Alberto Souviron - Revolution and Communication: who controls the narrative? - (Anglo-Bolivian Society)

Dr. Olivia Saunders - 'Navigating the mines: alliances, conflict, and compromise in comparative perspective' - (Liverpool John Moores University)

17:45 -18:00 Break

18:00 - 18:45 Key note

Prof. Tristan Platt - "The Monies of the State". Ayllu versus Syndical organization in Northern Potosí (1930-2000) - (University of St. Andrews)

19:00 – Reception