

Living with/on the Border

Writers, language and identity in north-east Italy from the end of World War II to the present

10 May 2019: Senate House, University of London

Organised by the Institute of Modern Languages Research and the Open World Research Initiative (OWRI) Cross-Language Dynamics: Reshaping Community. Generously sponsored by Casalini Books, the Society for Italian Studies, Istituto Italiano di Cultura London, the Association for the Study of Modern Italy, and the School of Modern Languages, Literatures and Cultures (SMLLC) Royal Holloway University of London.

Application for a travel bursary

Please complete the form below and return together with a brief (1 page) CV and a letter of support from your supervisor or a senior colleague. Bursaries are available for registered *PhD candidates and recent post-doctorals with no access to institutional funding. They are designed to assist with the cost of travel to London and may be awarded on a competitive basis.

Name:
Email:
Correspondence address:
University affiliation:
*Title of PhD thesis (if applicable):
*Date of registration for PhD (if applicable) :
*Proposed date of completion (if applicable) :
Estimate of travel costs:
Please list any other organisations to whom you are applying for support for this workshop and the sum applied for/received:

NB: Reimbursement will be made against presentation of travel receipts on arrival at the conference. We are unable to make reimbursement before the event.

Please return the completed form with supplementary documents to: OWRI Project Officer, Institute of Modern Languages Research, School of Advanced Study, Senate House, Malet Street, London WC1E 7HU; or email to: modernlanguages@sas.ac.uk